MISSISSAUGA MUSIC WALK OF FAME

Port Credit Memorial Park

Port Credit, known as the “Musical Hub of Mississauga” is the proud location of the Mississauga Music Walk of Fame.

Established in 2012 by the late Councillor Jim Tovey, The Walk recognizes and honours Inductees for their contributions as musicians, builders and creators who have contributed to our City’s vibrant music industry legacy. Last year’s tremendously successful Induction Ceremony at Memorial Park was a well-attended and celebrity-rich event at which our new Inductees, internationally renowned classical violinist, Adrian Anantawan and Platinum Blonde guitarist and songwriter, Sergio Galli joined the ranks with those already on the Walk. These include the great Oscar Peterson, Ronnie Hawkins, Tommy Hunter, Denny Doherty of the Mamas and Papas, Jeff Healey, Phil X of Bon Jovi, Liberty Silver, Alessia Cara, and many more. The Mississauga Music Walk of Fame is located in Memorial Park in Port Credit Ontario.

Our 2025 Induction Ceremony, on September 7th, will be another must-attend event! We recently launched our “Enhanced Walk Experience” developed with input from Sheridan College and our technology consultant partners Cognexion, The “Enhanced Walk Experience” allows visitors to simply capture the QR code of the star they are interested in on their smart phone or i-pad and view an animated bio with music and photos of their career and the impact they have had on the music industry and the City of Mississauga. The “Enhanced Walk Experience” provides a unique learning experience and virtually brings our stars to life!! The Mississauga Music Walk of Fame has become a unique and one-of-a-kind tourism destination, a musical heritage, historical and educational attraction, drawing visitors to The Walk and encouraging them to stay and discover Port Credit, the City of Mississauga, and surrounding areas.

Breaking away from the well-trodden path of major cities and bustling music hubs, The Sheepdogs are gearing up for a Canadian tour that will bring their electrifying live show to the heart of communities often overlooked by touring musicians.

As a testament to their commitment to music lovers who've grown accustomed to traveling long distances to catch a live concert, the band's tour spotlights many towns and places that rarely grace the tour schedules of renowned artists. With dates in Ontario, Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia and 6 shows in rural Quebec, the tour reaffirms The Sheepdogs' dedication to their fanbase, promising unforgettable nights of rock 'n' roll magic.

"We're a band from Saskatoon, so we are no strangers to having to travel to bigger cities to see concerts. Because of this, it's always been a mission for this band to not just play the big cities, but smaller cities and towns across this nation as well. From our experience, this is where some of the biggest music fans live. You shouldn't be denied live music in your hometown, just because you don't live in a major city."

In anticipation of the upcoming Canadian run, The Sheepdogs have released a captivating concert film capturing two unforgettable sold-out nights at the Shore

Club in the picturesque small town of Hubbards, Nova Scotia - population 401. Directed by Mat Dunlap, the 35-minute doc offers a glimpse behind the curtain with behind-the-scenes highlights, interviews, and stunningly captured concert footage starring the charismatic lineup of Ewan Currie, Shamus Currie, Ryan Gullen, Sam Corbett, and Ricky Paquette.

The Sheepdogs' latest studio release Outta Sight, has garnered international acclaim and was nominated for Rock Album of the Year at the 2023 JUNO Awards. The band has notably maintained a single in the Top 20 for an impressive 62 consecutive.: "Keep On Loving You", and "Rock and Roll (Ain't No Simple Thing)" from the band's 2021 EP No Simple Thing, and "Find The Truth" from their latest effort Outta Sight. 2023. They have played over 145 shows internationally in the past year, including numerous trips around North America, the UK, Europe and Australia.

The quintessential quintet are currently on tour in Europe where they enjoyed an incredibly successful tour in 2022, bringing people together in a celebration of rock & roll and good times with their signature 'guitarmonies' and killer live shows. The tour sees the band hitting up 15 countries before heading back to Canada for a well-deserved break.

Tom Wilson tehoḥāhake (two roads) is a Canadian musician, songwriter, famed storyteller and visual artist. Wilson's memoir, Beautiful Scars, published by Penguin/Random House has become a national bestseller.

In his memoir, Wilson reveals the impact of discovering his indigenous heritage. Musically, Wilson is best known for his work with Blackie & The Rodeo Kings and Lee Harvey Osmond, the latter receiving a 2020 Juno Award for the album Mohawk.

In 1989, Wilson became the founder of the popular rock band Junkhouse. The band quickly grew in popularity and in 1993 signed a recording contract with Sony Music Canada. Lead by Wilson, Junkhouse skyrocketed in the 90's, producing three albums, Strays, Birthday Boy and Fuzz, before disbanding. The style and success of Junkhouse has been an inspiration to many young Hamilton artists. Wilson recorded his first solo album Planet Love (2001) for Sony Music.

It was also during this time that Wilson starting dedicating more of his time and energy to his second passion, painting.

His art show "Beautiful Scars: Mohawk Warriors, Hunters and Chiefs" premiered at the Art Gallery of Burlington and his work "The Mystic Highway" was commissioned by the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences for a 30' x 30' reproduction legacy piece adorning John Street in Hamilton. The painting pays homage to the rich history of Hamilton musicians and performers from past.

In 1999, as a result of their shared love and admiration for one of Canada's great musical treasures, the late Willie P. Bennett, Wilson along with Stephen Fearing and Colin Linden formed what would become the acclaimed roots supergroup Blackie and the Rodeo Kings.

David Gogo has six JUNO Award nominations, has been named Guitarist Of The Year three times at the Maple Blues Awards, was named Musician Of The Year at the West Coast Music Awards, won Blues Recording Of The Year at the Western Canadian Music Awards, and received the Great Canadian Blues Award for his lifetime contribution to the blues in Canada as voted by the listeners of CBC's Saturday Night Blues. He has performed on stage with the likes of BB King, Johnny Winter, Albert Collins, Bo Diddley, and Otis Rush. He has been chosen to open shows for ZZ Top, George Thorogood, The Tragically Hip, Little Feat, Jimmie Vaughan, Robert Cray, Robin Trower and Wishbone Ash. His songs are featured in films and television and have been covered by a variety of artists, most notably Buddy Guy.

David Gogo on his new album YEAH!: I have recorded many albums, worked with many talented people, and had a lot of fun, but this album is my favourite to date.

I decided to leave my comfort zone and head to Ontario to work and stay at The Ganaraska Recording Co., surrounded by powdery snow and vintage guitars. In fact, I only used my guitar on one track, the rest belonged to the studio. I asked producer Steve Marriner to assemble a group of musicians for the project and he chose well. It's difficult to soar like an eagle when you are messing around with turkeys and I always surround myself with the best talent possible. This group, comprised of Steve Marriner, Jimmy Bowskill and Gary Craig, was a pleasure to create with — top-notch performers and super cool to hang with.

I feel that the new songs are very strong and there was such a great vibe in the studio. Though it was a relaxed and supportive environment, we worked at a quick rate and utilized plenty of first or second takes to keep the live energy happening!

MISS EMILY UNPLUGGED

In February of 2020, only days after Miss Emily celebrated the Maple Blues triple crown of Female Vocalist, New Artist and Sapphire Blues Video of the year, the world shut down.

You could still hear the roar of the crowd as the door slammed shut on performances, recording and almost everything else in the music industry. For the first time in two decades, Miss Emily had an empty calendar. Of the many cancelled shows, perhaps the most disappointing loss was a return to the venue that had become a second home; The Isabel Bader Centre for the Performing Arts in her adopted hometown of Kingston. After six sellout, foundation-rattling shows, fans, band, and team members alike had been looking forward to extending the streak. In a moment of reminiscence and sadness, it occurred to Emily that she had professional recordings from each show at the Isabel. That's nearly ten albums worth of songs.

After a quick call, Team Emily got to work reviewing every song from each of the six shows. It was a monumental task but with time frozen in the wake of COVID, trimming 150 songs down to 15 tracks went from nearly impossible to a recorded reality by fall of 2020. "LIVE at the Isabel" was released on October 30, 2020 to rave reviews but due to the never-ending pandemic she couldn't promote it with a tour. So instead, Team Emily submitted it for JUNO consideration. When we shared our submission with music industry insiders, the responses were not what we expected. "You submitted a live album - that's crazy."

"Live albums don't get nominated. It's a waste of time." Crazy? Not really. Waste of time? Definitely not.

Sunday September 7th
1:00pm

Memorial Park Mainstage

On March 1st, 2022 Miss Emily, "LIVE at the Isabel" was nominated for the JUNO Blues Album of the Year.

That sequence of events - from the Maple Blues Awards of 2020 to the 2022 JUNO Nominations - encapsulates all you need to know about Miss Emily. She specializes in overcoming insurmountable challenges and scaling metaphorical mountains. Her work ethic was forged in the foundries of Southern Ontario's bars and nightclubs. Her resilience is a product of 20 years in an industry that can be, at best, "unfriendly" towards women. She has an innovative spirit and creative force born out of necessity, and her incomparable vocals are surpassed only by her electrifying, roof-rattling performances.
